Special Issue: ESG Auditing and Reporting

(An Official Journal for International Computer Auditing Education Association)

The journal aims to provide a multidisciplinary platform for the advancement of knowledge in the areas of computer auditing. At the end of 2023, the journal will publish a theme issue entitled “ESG Auditing and Reporting”.

ESG auditing and reporting provide enterprises with valuable insights into their own performance in terms of environmental impact, social responsibility, and governance practices. Research in this area aims to develop assurance frameworks, methodologies, and materiality assessments that enable organizations to evaluate their ESG performance, set goals, and drive continuous improvement.

The special issue invites high-quality submissions of research papers on topics related to the ESG Auditing and Reporting. We consider all types of manuscripts (e.g., original and review papers, methodologies, technical reports, adoption, case studies, and etc.). Submissions are encouraged from a broad range of topics, including, but not limited to:

- ESG Assurance and Audit
- ESG Assurance Frameworks
- ESG Audit Regulation
- ESG Audit and Materiality
- ESG Audit Reporting
- ESG Assurance Process and Methodologies
- ESG Audit Independence and Objectivity
- ESG Data Quality and Assurance
- ESG Audit Challenges in Specific Industries or Regions
- ESG Audit and Technology
- ESG Application or Case Study

Special-Editors:

Dr. Shi-Ming (Jack) Huang	Dr. Ezz Hatab
Director, Center for e-Manufacturing and e-Commerce, National Chung Cheng University, Taiwan	CEO, ESG Board Ltd., London, UK
